

You Made a Difference Nominees October 2019

Winners:

Elliot Oakley, Healthcare Assistant, Ward A4

and

Peter Martin, Consultant, Neurology

Paula Appleton, Transplant Co-Ordinator/Senior Nurse, Transplant Support

For making a tremendous difference to a patients treatment.

Katie Bagstaff, Senior Sister, Operating Department

For being an exceptional and dedicated manager to your staff.

Emily Baker, Administrator, Staff Bank

For making your patient and their family feel at ease in a stressful situation during an appointment.

Katrina Barber, Senior Clinical Fellow, Anaesthetics

For making me feel cared for, listened to and safe.

Jill Barker, Clinical Nurse Specialist, Clinical Oncology

For being so caring and attentive to all your patients. A credit to the Trust!

Miriam Baumgarten, Consultant, Obstetrics and Gynaecology

For always going out of your way and doing that bit extra for the Clinic.

Katie Bradshaw, Advanced Practitioner, Clinical Oncology

For comforting your colleague after they received some upsetting news.

Lynne Brand, Medical Secretary, Paediatric Surgery

For going above and beyond when planning and running the examination for the department.

Simon Buckley, Occupational Health Nurse, Occupational Health

For being supportive and giving great advice.

Lisa Campbell, Nursery Nurse, Paediatric Neonatal Medicine

For your compassion and support during a difficult time.

Jo Carpenter, Medical Secretary, Otolaryngology

For being supportive to patients and their families.

Antonio Carvalho, Cleaner, Medirest

For being quick to respond to cleaning a messy job.

Daud Chou, Locum Consultant, Orthopaedics

For going the extra mile and being fantastic!

For being a supportive educator and encouraging other staff to consistently provide the highest standards of patient care.

Harry Cooper, Apprentice Systems & Asset Administrator, Estates and Facilities

For working excellently in the heat and small offices.

Florin Djendov, Clinical Fellow, Paediatric Surgery

For going above and beyond his role when organising a national examination.

Will Gelson, Consultant, Hepatology

For taking into consideration what the patient wishes before taking action.

Ian Grant, Consultant, Plastic Surgery

For making a patient and their family feel not too much trouble

Joanna Harrall, Leadership Development Facilitator, Management Development

For supporting your colleague with the 'workshop 2 of the Mary Seacole Programme'.

Gail Horan, Consultant, Clinical Oncology

For going above and beyond to help your patients.

Christine Keaveney, Domestic, Ward G5

For giving your time to listen to a patient and making them feel less lonely.

Celia Kelly, MDT & Pathway Co-ordinator, Cancer Support

For your great work.

Ruth Keswick, Specialist Support Nurse, Medical Oncology

For being a supportive colleague to all.

Megan King, Staff Nurse, Clinical Oncology

For your reassurance during a patients scary time.

Adil Lakha, Medical Student, Acute Medicine

For taking time out of your day to help a disabled person eat their lunch in the concourse.

Peter Martin, Consultant, Neurology

For helping make a difference to a patient's life.

Douglas Maslin, Specialty Registrar, Dermatology

For being accommodating to all patients and sorting problems and queries that arise.

Mary May, Staff Nurse, Ward M4

For your compassion and comfort for a patient during her last breathes.

Emily McDonald, Clinical Pharmacist - Rotational, Clinical Services

For always making sure everything is correct and efficient.

Kim McGinley, Business Administration Manager, Estates

For supporting and setting up meetings, and including everyone in The Sleep Sound Sleep Safe Project.

Zsuzsa Meszaros-Knight, Divisional Head of Workforce, Personnel

For supporting your colleague with the 'workshop 2 of the Mary Seacole Programme'.

Jamie Mistry, Orthoptist, Orthoptic Services

For making a extremely fun and positive experience for patients and families.

Martin Moden, Healthcare Assistant, Ward G5

For going above and beyond for patients and their families.

Emma Nash, Healthcare Assistant, Infusion Service

For your exemplary care.

Barry Nesbitt, Senior Clinical Technologist, Clinical Engineering

For staying late to ensure equipment is working to ensure continuity of service.

Ildiko Nyiro, Technician, Sterile Services

For your exceptional cleaning.

Ayoola Oniyide, Specialist Biomedical Scientist, Blood Sciences

For consistently providing results on time.

Xiaomei Ouyang, GI Physiologist, Gastrointestinal Physiology

For your time and gentleness.

For your time and care during a patients procedure.

Hannah Oxenford, Midwife, Maternity

For your diligence.

Paula Peirce, Junior Sister/Charge Nurse, Neonatal Intensive Care

For giving hope when things seemed hopeless.

Hugo Pires Ferreira, Practice Development Nurse, Critical Care Education

For supporting the team during your secondment post as a PDN.

For being a ray of sunshine, and for all your attention to detail care.

For your passion for teaching and helping others develop their skills.

For being very knowledgeable and caring with staff and patients.

Christine Pitargue, Staff Nurse, Infectious Diseases

For making patients feel extremely welcomed on the ward.

Carole Proctor, Lead Medical Secretary, Outpatients Service

For always supporting your colleagues and working relentlessly to improve services.

Estrella Rapadas Garce, Junior Sister/Charge Nurse, Rehabilitation

For being efficient, organised and making the ward a good place to work in.

Andreous Rehm, Consultant, Paediatrics

For making us feel like people and not just a number or another patient/family.

Joe Rice, Radiotherapy Technician, Radiotherapy Physics

For giving up your break to organise a patients appointments for one day avoiding the need for her to come another day.

Evis Sala, Honorary Consultant, Medical Staffing

For always being approachable and having great passion and care for your patient.

Holly Sheppard, HR Manager, Human Resources

For your dedication and passion.

Helen Smith, Bank HCA, Staff Bank

For making patients feel extremely welcome on the ward.

Kiran Tawana, Consultant, Haematology

For going out of your way to help a patients diagnosis and making sure they had a successful treatment as well as a speedy recovery.

Mark Thomas, HCA, Intensive Care Unit

For your hard work and assistance with Neuro Rehab sessions.

Monica Trivedi, Consultant, Intensive Care Unit

For being a great leader and an excellent colleague.

Preeti Wathore, Ward Clerk, Ward G3

For going out of your way to help patients and others.

Peter Willis, Carpenter, Estates and Facilities

For working excellently in the heat and small offices.